Permanency for Youth 16 and Older – Another Planned Living Arrangement (APPLA)

The APPLA is any permanent plan for a youth age 16 or older and nonminor dependents in an out-of-home foster care placement, in which a youth may remain until adulthood, when the options to return home, place with a relative, place for adoption, tribal customary adoption, or legal guardianship have been ruled out. The court may order Another Planned Permanent Living Arrangement (APPLA) for youth age 16 or older and nonminor dependents if appropriate. For youth placed in foster care under an APPLA permanency plan, the CSW must provide the court with the following information:

- A description of the youth to the home of the parent, place the youth for adoption, tribal customary adoption, or establish a legal guardianship;
- The steps taken to ensure the youth's care provider is following the reasonable and prudent parent standard; and

- The steps taken to ensure the youth's care provider is following the reasonable and prudent parent standard; and
- The steps to ascertain whether the youth has regular opportunities to engage in age or developmentally appropriate activities, including consulting with the youth regarding his/her desires and opportunities to participate in various activities.

Permanency for Children Under 16

APPLA has been eliminated as a permanency option for children under 16 years of age. The court must order a permanent plan of return home, adoption, tribal customary adoption, legal guardianship or placement with a fit and willing relative, as appropriate, for any child under the age of 16 who remains in a foster care placement after reunification services are terminated. Placement with a fit and willing relative is a permanency option for all youth. A fit and willing relative is an approved placement with a relative who is willing and capable of providing a stable and permanent home environment for the child, but is unable or unwilling to commit to legal permanence through adoption, tribal customary adoption, or guardianship at the time of the hearing. The CSW must provide the court with the following information:

- Documentation of any barriers to achieving the permanent plan and the efforts made to address those barriers.
- If a child under the age of 16 currently has a permanent plan other than return home, adoption, tribal customary adoption, legal guardianship or placement with a fit and willing relative, DCFS must apply the new requirements described in this section and choose a permanency plan other than APPLA at the next permanency hearing.

VISITATION

- Discuss the appropriateness of future visitation between the child and his/her parents, siblings and/or other family members. This information will support the recommended visitation plan and may include a discussion of the previous implementation and compliance of any court-ordered visitation plan.
